FROM THE DESK OF Dr. Jeff Roberts Senior Pastor

I take no joy in sharing with you the news from the recent Southern Baptist Convention's annual meeting held on June 12-15 in New Orleans, Louisiana. During this meeting of the SBC, the messengers voted 88% in favor to uphold the dismissal of two congregations, due to women serving as Pastors. In one instance, it was Fern Creek Baptist Church in Louisville, Kentucky who has a woman as pastor. The other was Saddleback church of California where Rick Warren has been the long-time pastor. This congregation has several women who serve as pastors in the church but not as senior pastors. It is estimated that there are over 1900 churches with SBC ties that have women in these roles. In addition to the dismissal of these congregations, the SBC also voted to change its constitution to ban women from serving in the role of pastor in the church. This constitutional change will take another year to be approved.

As you are aware, Trinity has several women on our staff who are ordained and serve in pastoral roles in our congregation. Although we have not received an official notice of the intent to dismiss us from the SBC, I would not be surprised for us to receive one at some point. I have shared with the Deacons and the Trustees that once we receive such a notice, I will bring it to them and our congregation. What does this mean for us in the short term?

First, it means our longest mission partner may choose to no longer want to cooperate with us. Trinity has been a Southern Baptist cooperating congregation since its founding. In recent decades, due to decisions by the SBC, Trinity has also supported the work of the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship who is comprised of many congregations who share similar convictions regarding Baptist autonomy and the role of women in the church. It is a sad day when our oldest historic Baptist partner no longer wants our cooperation due to our local church practice.

We need to be reminded that we are an autonomous local congregation. The SBC, CBF or any other denominational organization has no authority over Trinity Baptist Church and our practice of faith. Thus, we will continue to practice as the Spirit leads including having women in pastoral roles and leading in every area of our congregation.

On a practical level, until further notice, we can continue to send our cooperative program money through the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, as we have in the past, until further notice. A portion of our money that goes to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina is forwarded to the SBC. It is this portion that is considered our cooperative giving to the SBC.

At Trinity we give every member the opportunity to choose a mission giving plan. When you choose a mission giving plan, 5% of what you give is forwarded to those mission partners. Our plans are as follows:

- Plan A This plan supports the SBC and the Baptist State Convention of NC
- Plan B This plan supports the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship including CBFNC and CBF
- Plan C This plan supports the Baptist State Convention (minus SBC) and Cooperative Baptist Fellowship.

(You can also choose for your giving to not be calculated in our cooperative giving with these organizations by choosing Trinity only. This choice means your funds are only used in our local budget and the mission efforts our budget supports. You can write this on a check or contact our Financial Administrator for information.)

In the year 2022, 17% of our cooperative giving went to Plan A. This is the only plan that could be affected by the vote and direction of the SBC regarding women in leadership. If you currently choose Plan A, please know that at this point nothing has changed regarding you being able to give to the SBC and North Carolina Baptist State Convention. If you would like to adjust your giving plan, considering these recent events, you should contact Jan Brown our Financial Administrator or change your designation if you use offering envelopes. She will help instruct you on options.

Also, please know that if you do not currently choose a missions' plan, your giving is being divided among the three plans. Which means, that if you do not choose a plan, 17% of your giving went to Plan A last year. If you would like to make any adjustment or choose a plan then please contact Jan Brown.

Finally, let me repeat what I said on my first weekend at Trinity when I came in view of a call as your Pastor. I believe it is our calling to discover together what God is leading Trinity Baptist Church to be and do as a congregation. We will then find partners we can cooperate with to fulfill this calling. For 23 years that has meant sometimes it was with the SBC or CBF. Other times it was with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina or the Raleigh Baptist Association. Still other moments that has meant partnering with our neighborhood North Hills churches. I have not changed my view on this matter. We state in our Church Covenant, which we read when we come to the Lord's Table:

"As we engage to teach and to nurture our Baptist heritage, we shall seek a unity of spirit and action with all Christians."

Let us continue to live by this statement. Let us seek cooperation with all who work with us for the glory of God and for the sharing of the good news of God's love in Christ. Let us continue to cooperate as we can. I believe cooperation is not only the Baptist way but the only way for the church to be a witness in this world. We will continue keep the congregation informed as this situation progresses.

— TBC LIBRARY NEWS — THE BLEECKER STREET INQUIRY AGENCY SERIES

After a childhood as a street thief, Gabriella Goodhue thought she'd put her past behind her until a fellow resident at her boardinghouse is unjustly accused of theft. In the middle of breaking into a safe that holds the proof to prove her friend's innocence, Gabriella is interrupted by Nicholas Quinn, the man she once considered her best friend--until he abandoned her. After being taken under the wing of a professor who introduced him into society and named him as heir, Nicholas is living far removed from his childhood life of crime. As a favor to a friend, Nicholas agreed to help clear the name of an innocent woman, never imagining he'd be reunited with the girl he thought lost to him forever. As Gabriella and Nicholas are thrown together into one intrigue after another, their childhood affection grows into more, but their newfound feelings are tested when truths about their past are revealed and danger follows their every step.

All three books in this series by Jen Turano, To Steal a Heart, To Write a Wrong, and To Disguise the Truth, are available on the shelf in the TBC Library and are also available as eBooks in the TBC Digital Library..

In order to access eBooks, you must have a TBC Library Card and request to be on the eBooks approved list. ## ALWAYS ROOM FOR YOU!

Find your place in music ministry in 2023! If you have singing or instrumental abilities, we need you. We are always looking for more musicians to add to our worship leading ministries at Trinity. Consider getting involved in music ministry and being a part of an exciting place of ministry!

Thanks to Joy Blashaw for leading in my place while I am away on vacation. Each year when I need to be away, I leave confidently knowing that God will take care of our choir ministry with great servants of the Lord. Thank you, Sanctuary Choir, for being faithful!

The Trinity Orchestra will be on rehearsal break to enjoy a few weeks of rest. We will resume rehearsals on July 26.

Rising 6th Graders and families, we will begin rehearsals on September 10 at 6:00 pm. This is a good time to evaluate your participation in our music ministry and join in the fun with our Student Choir. Trinity has had a rich tradition of providing a musical group for our student in 6th through 12th grades, and the music we offer in worship is so needed. And so are you! Make plans for this in your future calendars and get involved!

Make plans for Wednesdays in the Fall 2023 Preschool and Children's Choir ministry. We will begin our choir kick-off on September 6 and the first night of rehearsals on September 13. Preschool and Children's Choirs exist to help teach and disciple students about Jesus using music as a bridge in their faith development. Each choir has opportunities to sing in worship and especially for the Hanging of the Greens Service that begins Advent. More to come later, but mark your calendars now!

Until we meet again!
Steve

Let the message of Christ dwell among you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom through psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit, singing to God with gratitude in your hearts

— Colossians 3:16

The College Ministry had a great mission trip to Nicoya, Costa Rica. We enjoyed amazing hospitality from our host church. Students worked together on food delivery to homebound community members, construction projects, and a VBS. A highlight of the week was watching around 100 children open their Operation Christmas Child boxes! Students and chaperones alike had a great time and are already planning on when they can return.

Congrats to all of our 2023 Graduates! We are so proud of you!
