TBC LIBRARY NEWS

LOVE AMID THE ASHES

Readers often think of Job sitting on the ash heap, his life in shambles. But how did he get there? What was Job's life like before tragedy struck? What did he think as his world came crashing down around him? And what was life like after God restored his wealth, health, and family? Through painstaking research and a writer's creative mind, Mesu Andrews weaves an emotional and stirring account of this well-known story told through the eyes of the women who loved him. Drawing together the account of Job with those of Esau's tribe and Jacob's daughter Dinah, Love Amid the Ashes breathes life, romance, and passion into the classic biblical story of suffering and steadfast faith.

All four books in this series by Mesu Andrews, Love Amid the Ashes, Love's Sacred Song, Love in a Broken Vessel, and In the Shadow of Jezebel, are available on the shelf in the TBC Library and are also available as eBooks in the TBC Digital Library.

In order to access eBooks, you must have a TBC Library Card and request to be on the eBooks approved list. In order to use eBooks you will have to add the Libby by OverDrive app to your smartphone, tablet, laptop, desktop, or Kindle. We are constantly striving to make Trinity's campus the best it can be. We recently did our spring updates with landscaping around our campus including mulch and pine straw, to help beautify and keep our campus looking great.

Be on the lookout for upgrades coming soon around the columbarium area in the coming weeks. This beautification project will enhance the columbarium space, add some much needed seating areas, and a space to have a service.

Look out for the remainder of our Fellowship Meals for June and beyond!

Over the last several years, there has been a steep increase in death by suicide on our university campuses in and around the Triangle. It is tragic to know that our college students feel they have nowhere to turn for help.

To address the heaviness of death and poor mental health our young people are experiencing, a group of moms and dads took it upon themselves to provide comfort and love to students on campus. A group of caring and empathetic adults decided to just show up on campus at NC State to give out free hugs and to be a listening ear to all students that came by.

In a research published by Harvard Graduate School of Education in October of 2023, thirty-six percent (36%) of young adults (ages 18-25) who responded to the survey reported experiencing anxiety and twenty-nine percent (29%) reported depression. The report identified 5 drivers of young adults' mental health challenges as:

1. A lack of meaning, purpose, and direction
2. Financial worries and achievement pressure
3. A perception that the world is unraveling
4. Relationship deficits
5. Social and political issues

There is a mental health crisis among today's young adults. (This is likely the understatement of the year.) The young adults in our circle of influence are no different. They feel the same pressures, lack relational support and face difficult challenges from multiple directions.

So, what do we do?

First, we work to develop trust-filled relationships. Don't assume that just by knowing their names, you've built enough trust. Trust is only built over time. We have to consistently show up for (and with) young adults WITHOUT OUR OWN AGENDA. (This is true for our children and youth also.) We just keep showing up in their lives with love and empathy.

Second, when opportunities arise, help young people make meaning of what they are experiencing. Help them to know there is meaning and purpose in life. Help them to know they are more than the sum of their achievements. Let them know they are ENOUGH because of Jesus.

Lastly, Keep pointing them to Jesus. It is not our job to "fix" people. Our role is to model a hope-filled life and remind them of how much God and you love them. Our hope is found in Jesus.

ALWAYS ROOM FOR YOU!

Find your place in music ministry in 2024! If you have singing or instrumental abilities, we need you. We are always looking for more musicians to add to our worship leading ministries at Trinity. Consider getting involved in music ministry and being a part of an exciting place of ministry!

The Sanctuary Choir and Accompanists present The Power of the Cross in morning worship services on Palm Sunday, March 24, 2024. The choir has had an incredible season of growth and is excited to present this music as we anticipate the arrival of Holy Week and Easter. Bring your friends and relatives to hear the gospel story told through song and narration.

Mark your calendars!

Student choir will not rehearse on March 24 or 31.
 Bells of Praise will not rehearse on March 31.
 Rehearsals will resume on April 7 for both groups.

Children’s Choir Program, April 24, 6:30 PM

Parents and children, our choir program ends with a concert on April 24, so make sure you have this important date on your calendars. Our children learn so much about Jesus and their faith through song, and when we hear their voices sing about Jesus, it does the heart good! Looking forward to this important day of celebration.

This is the story of Jacob. An entire study built for the strugglers among us, the fumbler within us. For those who are part saint, part scoundrel; we mean well, but we don't always do well. We have breakthrough and breakdowns, often in the same hour. We need no reminders of our failures. But God is always there for us, even when it doesn't seem like it.

Update from our Disaster Relief Team: Trinity Baptist Disaster Relief & FBC Hillsborough Collaboration

Recently, the Disaster Relief Team at Trinity was approached by Lydia Tatum, Welcome House Network Director and Johnny Glover to evaluate and possibly fix a leak in a bathroom of the First Baptist Church Welcome House in Hillsborough, NC.

Their Welcome House has hosted families for 3 years but had only 1 shower. Fixing the upstairs shower means they could host more families at a time.

Louis Pearce, Mark Blashaw and myself made an evaluation visit to develop a plan of action. We determined we could replace the shower pan, repair drain, and retile the area to stop the leak.

Mark Blashaw, Mark Munday, and Johnny Glover (someone was needed to hand tools) worked 5 days to complete the project. The first day we took out the old floor and of course discovered the floor was not level. Second day Mark and Mark replaced the floor to get ready for tiles. Mark Blashaw, and Johnny (mostly Mark) worked the last days laying the floor and tiles. The best part (because of donations) the cost was zero. We contacted Byrd Tile and he donated all the tiles and material.

After 5 days and 96 man hours, the Welcome House shower is now fixed and ready for refugees. Much thanks goes to Mark Blashaw who worked all 5 days and did most of the planning and labor.

– Johnny Glover, Welcome House Volunteer

MARRIAGE ENRICHMENT GROUPS or "MEGS" are couples who meet once a month to invest an evening in growing their marriage. If you have previously been in a Starter MEG group or attended a Marriage Retreat, you are invited to join a returning group of couples that will meet once a month for a fun video series. This group will be led by LeAnne and Keith Bissette.

The group's first meeting will take place on April 7th at 7:00pm at Keith and LeAnne's home.

Attention Quilters, Knitters, & Crocheters!

Do you enjoy sewing or knitting small items? Do you like to lift the spirits of others?

If so, the Prayer Quilter group may be for you! Prayer quilts are quick and easy to make, and small enough to fit inside your pocket or purse. Prayer quilts are given to friends within the church and community. The group meets briefly on the first Thursday of each month in the library at 11am to gather needed supplies, then assembles the prayer quilts at home. If you cannot attend at this time, we can meet with you on a Wednesday evening at 6 pm. Consider joining us for at least one meeting to see if this is for you.
