

TRINITY BAPTIST CHURCH

TRINITY TIMES

Belong. Become. Be.

I am excited to share with you that we have a candidate for our Associate Pastor for Missions and Senior Adults position. Our search team chair, Kay Bailey, shared in our July 21, 2024, Church Conference that the committee has unanimously voted to bring a candidate to the church for a vote and call. We are excited to share with you our candidate's name, ministry history and qualifications. However, out of respect for him and his current congregation we must wait until closer to our call date to share all this information. We can share some information with you at this time.

Our candidate is a graduate of a Baptist Seminary and Baptist Divinity School and holds both a Master of Divinity degree and Doctor of Ministry degree. He has been a Senior Pastor of three North Carolina congregations over the past 24 years. Prior to this he served as an Associate Pastor and Minister to Youth. He is involved as a leader in all levels of Baptist life including his association and on the state level. He has a passion for missions which is evident in his leadership in all the congregations he has served. He possesses years of experience in pastoral care and leadership.

He is a collaborative leader, a relationship builder and has a passion to help others come to Christ and grow in their relationship with Christ. He is warm and engaging and is known as an encourager by those who know him best.

As you can surmise, our search team is excited to introduce our candidate in the coming weeks. Currently, we have set this schedule for this process:

Friday August 23- A church wide email will be sent sharing the name, resume and information about our candidate.

Saturday August 24- The candidate will meet with the Missions Steering Committee and the Senior Adult Ministry Committee from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. in Room A214.

Saturday August 24- A churchwide drop in reception will be held in the Fellowship Hall from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. for any church member to come and meet our candidate and his wife.

Sunday August 25- The Candidate will be present in both worship services and share about his calling and ministry during the service. We will vote at the end of each service to call the candidate. (In our July 21, 2024 Church Conference a motion was made and approved for a Special Called Church Conference to be held on August 25th at the end of each worship service for the purpose of calling the candidate.)

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

I am so grateful for the work of our search team and Personnel Committee. I look forward to our congregation meeting our candidate. Please keep him and his family as well as his current congregation in your prayers as we move through this process.

THE TRINITY LAYMEN

It is with mixed emotions that The Trinity Laymen have decided to retire as a group effective July 1, 2024. We will be around as individuals serving in various ways at Trinity Baptist Church. We are saying farewell to rehearsals every week and on the road to other churches 8-10 times annually. We have held concerts in over 100 churches, as well as numerous times here at Trinity. We have enjoyed being able to be a part of worship on a regular basis and ministering in times of sorrow and times of joy with our church family. Thank you, Trinity Baptist Church, for lovingly supporting us in our ministry for the last 37+ years.

We are looking forward to a "Farewell Concert" here at Trinity on August 25, 2024 at 6:00pm. Mark your calendars and look for more information.

How to create a connection with young adults

“Young adults are not a problem to be solved.” This is a statement that I make often when I’m training churches. Unfortunately, I have to make the statement because many congregations see them as a means to an end: young adults can potentially help keep the doors of the church open into the future. Young adults are often seen as the church’s “holy grail.” Everybody wants them, but only a few know what to do with them if they actually show up.

While young adults (ages 20-35 years old) constitute 20% of the U.S. population, they make up only 10% of church attendance. And honestly, most churches would be thrilled to see young adults make up 10% of those sitting in their pews!

It’s easy for leaders in the church to view young adults (or the lack thereof) as a problem to be solved. I’ve heard leaders often ask questions like, “How can we attract more young adults to our church?” or “Why won’t they commit to our church?” Unfortunately, many leaders feel like they’re in competition with the church down the road for young adults because they’re a scarce commodity. To many, it’s a zero sum game.

Interestingly, the harder the church tries to hold on to the few young adults they have, the quicker they seem to leave. We live in this interesting paradox.

What young adults need from the church is a safe place where they are seen and heard. They need more experienced adults who can assure them that while life is difficult, God and the church will walk alongside them. Young adults need friendships with people of all generations who are willing to see them for who they are rather than what they can do for the church. The church has to really SEE the young adults and HEAR their desires for their lives to love and support them.

So, if you want to help be part of the solution, help young adults feel seen and heard. In the near future, invite a couple of young adults you know over for lunch, dinner or coffee. (If you don’t know any young adults, start with your grandchildren or your friends’ children or grandchildren.) Ask them to share what life is like today in their 20s. Ask them about their hopes and dreams. Ask about their hurts and disappointments and what they wished was different.

The most important thing you can do is LISTEN. Don’t listen to formulate your response but really listen to what they are saying and not saying. Don’t try to “fix” them. Remember, they are not problems to be solved. Allow relationships to form naturally by providing the space and opportunity. A night like this can be simple, yet transformative!

The Slide Team is recruiting workers for training. If you are interested in helping with this team, contact me at slbyers@tbccraleigh.com. Mark Blashaw is the team captain and would love to help you find your place in ministry.

— Colossians 3:16

ALWAYS ROOM FOR YOU!

Coming this Fall- Sunday School Fellowship Time on Sunday Mornings

We have a new Sunday School goal this year. Our hope is to connect age groups and people together that do not always cross paths.

This fall we will select several SS classes from various departments to meet on one Sunday for a time of fellowship, lessons and sharing together. We will meet in the Fellowship Hall and your leadership will be told in advance. We hope to have a wonderful time of sharing, cooperating, and learning together. We may offer pastries and coffee for fun!

Weekday Preschool News- Introducing our New Weekday Director

I would like to introduce to you Suzanne Holleman, our new Weekday Director. She will begin in the middle of August. Suzanne comes to us with over 27 years of hands-on experience in preschool management. She obtained a Bachelor of Science Degree in Child Development and Family Relations from East Carolina University. Suzanne has served for 14 years at Millbrook Baptist Preschool. She also worked with the Bright Horizons organization in several administration positions prior to going to Millbrook. Suzanne has a passion for early childhood education, and she is committed to fostering staff, families, and church relationships. She wrote on her application that she would like to serve our preschool as director because Trinity's approach to play and learning center-based childcare matches her own philosophy. She believes, "each child is unique and born with God gifted skills and personality. It is our privilege to guide and teach them to make good choices and learn new skills."

Suzanne understands the ministry between the community and the church. It is her belief that the preschool is an outreach of the church. She states, "We must look for opportunities to help the community, when possible, through food drives, backpack buddies, and other community needs. The preschool should also look for opportunities to partner with the Church for activities and outreach through events."

I know you will join me in welcoming Suzanne to our school and supporting her in her new position. Preschool orientation will be August 28 and 29. School begins on September 3.

TRINITY SUMMER MISSIONS

Family Promise Partners Needed August 4th-10th

Family Promise has been working to end homelessness in Wake County since 1993. In that time, they've evolved and added new programs to continue to serve a growing, changing community. They now have programs in prevention, emergency shelter, post-shelter stabilization, rapid rehousing, transitional housing, and a New Lease on Life.

Family Promise in Wake County houses families in their apartment building next to their Day Center on Method Road. Churches participate in the ministry by providing food and sponsoring activities (i.e., cookouts, game/movie nights).

Trinity has committed to "hosting" up to four (4) families by providing dinners, hosting an onsite event, donating money or Food Lion gift cards ($10), and praying for the families and the Family Promise ministry.
