

TRINITY BAPTIST CHURCH

TRINITY TIMES

Belong. Become. Be.

August is a time when we prepare for a new church year. Our teachers and leaders are getting prepared for a new year of teaching. Our students, children and preschoolers will be moving up to new classrooms on August 25, 2024. August is also a time to reconnect with our church family as the summer comes to an end. I want to encourage you to join us for our Fall Kick-Off event on August 28, 2024. There will be food, games, inflatables and fellowship for the whole family. Come and reconnect as we prepare for a new church year on Wednesdays nights. You can see more information below.

Fall Kick-Off

August 28th at 5:30pm
Fun for the whole family!

In addition, let me remind you about the weekend of August 25th as we prepare to call a new Associate Pastor for Missions and Senior Adults. Here is our schedule:

Friday August 23- A church wide email will be sent sharing the name, resume and information about our candidate.

Saturday August 24- The candidate will meet with the Missions Steering Committee and the Senior Adult Ministry Committee from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. in Room A214.

Saturday August 24- A churchwide drop-in reception will be held in the Fellowship Hall from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. for any church member to come and meet our candidate and his wife.

Sunday August 25- The Candidate will be present in both worship services and share about his calling and ministry during the service. We will vote at the end of each service to call the candidate. (In our July 21, 2024 Church Conference a motion was made and approved for a Special Called Church Conference to be held on August 25th at the end of each worship service for the purpose of calling the candidate.)

I am looking forward to this weekend and to the coming church year. Come and be a part of your church's life and ministry.

WELCOME TO TRINITY

Marshal & Theodocia McLean
Statement

Coming this Fall- Sunday School Fellowship
Time on Sunday Mornings

We have a new Sunday School goal this year. Our hope is to connect age groups and people together that do not always cross paths.

This fall we will select several SS classes from various departments to meet on one Sunday for a time of fellowship, lessons and sharing together.

We will meet in the Fellowship Hall and your leadership will be told in advance. We hope to have a wonderful time of sharing, cooperating, and learning together. We will offer pastries and coffee for fun!

THE TRINITY LAYMEN

It is with mixed emotions that The Trinity Laymen have decided to retire as a group effective July 1, 2024. We will be around as individuals serving in various ways at Trinity Baptist Church. We are saying farewell to rehearsals every week and on the road to other churches 8-10 times annually. We have held concerts in over 100 churches, as well as numerous times here at Trinity. We have enjoyed being able to be a part of worship on a regular basis and ministering in times of sorrow and times of joy with our church family. Thank you, Trinity Baptist Church, for lovingly supporting us in our ministry for the last 37+ years.

We are looking forward to a "Farewell Concert" here at Trinity on August 25, 2024 at 6:00pm. Mark your calendars and look for more information.

ROOF REPAIR PROJECT

The roof project continues! Please make note the playground will be closed effective now through the end of August. While we are working hard to minimize impacts and keeping this job on our scheduled timeline, we value and appreciate your cooperation during this time.

Most of us have stayed up too late over the last two weeks watching the Olympics. We've celebrated the moments of triumph and we've shed tears over the agony of defeat for athletes who have given their all and sacrificed much to compete in their sport. One of my favorite Olympic sports to watch is swimming. I marvel at their abilities and wish I could have a fraction of their athleticism. One of the essential skills to be successful in swimming is the ability to quickly and powerfully push off the wall when making the turn. I want you to hold on to this image.

In previous editions of the Trinity Times (see 4.9.24 edition), I talked about the questions young people are pursuing answers to through the lens of identity, belonging, and purpose. The questions of Who am I?, Where do I fit? and What difference can I make? become the operating system of their young lives. These questions often drive why they do what they do so I want to dig into this a little more deeply with you.

When we refer to a young person's identity, we define it as a set of beliefs concerning who one is in relation to one's personal attributes, relationships, and group affiliations. Young people often have multiple identities and the journey in their 20's is often based on how they reconcile those identities into one. Rather than defining their identity in what they achieve (or don't achieve), we remind them that they are ENOUGH in Jesus.

But sometimes telling young adults they are enough in Jesus just isn't enough. The more young adults experience life, the more complex life gets. Things that were often black and white in their elementary years become shades of gray as they understand more of the world. Therefore, as part of finding one's identity, young adults often ask, "How does my faith keep up with my increasingly complex, in-motion world?" Young adults desire a faith that is going to grow with them. Their faith journeys must negotiate new information and experiences to recalibrate their understanding of who they are and who God is in their lives.

It may seemingly not make sense, but young people's lack of attendance doesn't reflect their desire for participation. Let that marinate and sink in for a little while. Young adults in their 20's have lives that are constantly in-motion. They experience very little stability. They often don't have structured lives. So within their fluid lives, young adults are asking "Who will walk (and even change) with us through our faith journeys?"

What they need from the church (and the people in the church) is for us to be the wall. We should make space for their questions and doubts WITHOUT JUDGMENT. We should be a place where young adults feel welcomed no matter how often or how infrequently they might come to church. We need to be one of the few places in their lives that remain constant. So, consider how we can be the wall for young adults in the church and outside the church. Ask how you can be the wall for your kids and your grandchildren. That's how we help them to discover their identity in Christ.

It has been a great Summer so far making music with the Sanctuary Choir. We have been experiencing excellent numbers in rehearsals and on Sunday mornings in worship, and you can be a part of the joy in worship leadership by joining us! This is a wonderful singing family, and we'd love to have you. We rehearse each week at 7:30 pm for an hour. Come join us!

The Video Team is recruiting workers for training. If you are interested in helping with this team, contact me at sbyers@tbcraleigh.com. Mark Blashaw is the team captain and would love to help you find your place in ministry.

A story of Challenging Baptist Patriarchy (Special movie presentation)
Baptist Women in Ministry developed and released a documentary titled, Midwives of a Movement. This production chronicles the stories of the women who boldly birthed a movement to seek greater visibility and opportunities for women within the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) in the 1970s and 1980s. Despite great opposition, their courage blazed pathways for advancing women in ministry and leadership among Baptists over the last 40+ years. Join us for this film as we assemble to watch in solidarity with all women who serve among Baptists to share a positive message of affirmation and hope. In true Baptist tradition this production proudly demonstrates that when women are pushed down and marginalized, we always rise up!

 is a 13 week, video based series that provides comfort and hope through a support group. You will find welcome and hope while seeking recovery and healing after the hurt of divorce. Begins on Wednesday August 21, 2024 in Room D360 at 7pm!

English as a Second Language Ministry

This is a ministry that several women at Trinity have been involved with for a few years. We minister to the refugee community at Smithdale Apts in the Athens Drive community. It is a wonderful and engaging ministry which helps men and women who find themselves new to our city learn to speak the English language. We are always looking for more volunteers to help teach and to also help watch the preschool children who attend with their parents. If this is something you are possibly be interested in, please contact Rev. Karen Eickhoff, Lisa Paula, Tamara Rouse or Dawn Dees for more information. We love when these new friends come to America, and we would love to share them with you!

NC Baptists On Mission – Organization & Financial Structure

At NCBM/Baptists on Mission, our vision is "Every Christian sharing God's love through word and deed." Our desire is to help churches involve their members (women, men, and students) in missions and ministry in Jesus' name. We believe that all Christians are called, gifted, and sent.

Baptists On Mission (NC Baptist Men/NCBM) is an auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention of NC, which is a 501c3 tax-exempt organization. NC Baptists On Mission/NC Baptist State Convention is a stand-alone organization not associated with nor governed by the Southern Baptist Convention or Cooperative Baptist Fellowship.

In a video by Richard Brunson, the Executive Director of Baptists On Mission, stated that "the funding for Baptists On Mission comes from the NC Missions Offering."

The North Carolina Missions Offering (NCMO) is an annual offering received during the month of September. The offering supports a variety of vital ministries in North Carolina, with an impact that extends across the country and around the world. The offering supports disaster relief and the 19 different ministries of Baptists On Mission, church planting, missions partnerships, mission camps, and work in local Baptist associations.

Trinity's North Carolina State Missions Offering Goal for 2024 is $31,753.
