Register on pg. 15

I am delighted to share with you that our church voted to call Rev. Dr. Randy McKinney as our new Associate Pastor for Missions and Senior Adults. Randy will bring years of experience and passion for this role. The hardest part of this process for us is now. Dr. McKinney is required to give a 60-day notice at his current position which means his first day with us will be Monday October 28, 2024. While we await his arrival, let us pray for Randy, Karen, Addison and Peyton as they make the transition to Trinity. Let us also remember in prayer the congregation of our sister church, Longview Baptist Church, as they enter a pastoral transition. I believe that God has been at work in this calling and because of this, I am certain that God will continue to work all involved to bring about God's kingdom goals. I am grateful to our Search Team and Personnel Committee for their hard work and following God's leading in this matter.

September means the beginning of a new church year and I am excited about our weeknight Bible Study which we call TNT (Tuesday Night Training). This fall we will be studying the book of James. We begin with our kick-off meal on Tuesday September 10th at 6:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. The first session of the study will begin on September 17th at 6:30 p.m. If you are unfamiliar with this format, our men and women gather for Bible Study in a small group setting for 8 to 10 weeks each fall and winter/spring. Robin Roberts leads an opening teaching time for our women, and I lead an opening teaching time for our men. After the initial opening, we go to small groups where the passage for the week is discussed with the leadership of our small group leaders. This is a great way to not only study God's word but also to form relationships with others in our church. In addition, I want to remind you that this is not only for Trinity members. You are encouraged to invite a friend, co-worker, or neighbor to join us. If you have not tried TNT before then I invite you to join us this fall. If you were a part of TNT in the past but have missed the last few years, come back and join us.

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

In addition, if Tuesday night is not a good night for your schedule, I will be leading the same study in a large group on Wednesday nights at 6:30 p.m. This is especially good for those who have children and students in our Wednesday night programs. We use a similar format with a little more lecture and then form small groups for discussion in the room. Come join us for a 45-minute study on James. We begin our study on Wednesday nights on September 11th. We meet in A303. (The third floor of the Sanctuary Building.) All material for Tuesday and Wednesday is now available for pickup in the office.

TBC LIBRARY NEWS

LONDON BEGINNINGS SERIES

London 1879. Forced to leave all she loves behind, she seeks a new life in a city bursting with opportunity, but fraught with danger.

When a series of circumstances beyond her control leaves Rosalyn Bernay alone and penniless in London, she chances upon a job backstage at a theater that is presenting the most popular show in the city. A talented musician and singer, she feels immediately at home and soon becomes enthralled with the idea of pursuing a career on the stage. That is, as long as the shadows from her past don't catch up with her.

After a hand injury forces Nate Moran from his army regiment in India, he returns to London, a place that holds bitter memories. He agrees to fill in temporarily as a stagehand while his brother recuperates from a broken leg, but Nate is counting the days until he can rejoin his regiment. His future is decided -- until he meets the beautiful woman who has found a new lease on life in the very place Nate yearns to leave behind.

All three books in this series by Jennifer Delamere, The Captain's Daughter, The Heart's Appeal, and The Artful Match, are available on the shelf in the TBC Library and are also available as eBooks in the TBC Digital Library.

The Importance of Belonging

In today's world, it can be hard to find places where you feel like you truly belong. Sociologists have noticed what is known as modern tribalism (sometimes referred to as neotribalism) which points to the tendency to live in tribal society, as opposed to mass society, and this will naturally form social networks constituting new tribes. Modern tribalism is often equated with partisan politics but it can also reference strong affiliation with sports teams (go Pack!) or other subgroups that we might feel a sense of belonging. Tribalism, most often, is seen as negative, but one thing it provides is a sense of belonging.

Interestingly, one of the questions young adults are constantly asking during their most turbulent decade of life (twentysomethings) is the question, "Where do I fit?" They feel a sense of belonging when they are connected to and can trust a community in which they can have influence, have their needs met, and mutually share emotional connection with others.

Experiencing a sense of belonging for young adults can be difficult due to normal life experiences during this stage of life.

- 18-29 year olds move more than all other age categories.
- 52% live at home with one of their parents
- Twentysomethings average 8.2 different jobs over the decade
- Many young adults are dating less, if at all
- Many young adults are less trusting of institutions, including the church

Many young adults are asking, "Who is my community when my home keeps changing, and my presence is short-lived?"

This is where the church can and should meet the young adults where they are. Community is the core of who we are. We are the body of Christ (1 Corinthians 12:12-13). We can be the constant support in their lives. When everything is swirling around them, the community of faith can be the source of stability and support.

You might have noticed that we are seeing an increase of twentysomethings in worship. (I hope you have.) They are finding Trinity for a multitude of reasons but one thing they have in common – they are looking for a place of belonging. Keep welcoming them to church. Speak to them, find out their names, and help them to feel seen. You are making a difference!

From Sylvia Pearce, Director of our Prime Timers Choir:

The Prime Timers Choir will start rehearsals on Tuesday Morning, September 10, 2024 at 10 a.m. in Room B236.

ATTENTION ALL TRINITY SENIORS (age 62+), you are invited to join us for an hour of fun, fellowship and singing. Please let me share a story with you.

“Research has shown singing with a group of people produces benefits you just don’t get from singing alone in the shower. Singing together promotes:

- Mental health and happiness
- A deep connection between singers
- A sense of community
- A higher pain threshold
- A stronger immune system
- Relaxation

Musician and author, James Sills, has organized community and workplace choirs. He conducts “choir-in-a-day” workshops internationally. Sills claims something extraordinary happens when we join with others to sing. There is something we receive...and give...when we gather to magnify our Lord together as one body.

So, you are invited to come and join The Prime Timers Choir on Tuesday, 9/10 at 10 a.m. in Room B236. Contact Sylvia Pearce, 919-671-9622 if you are interested or have questions.

Did you know that 1 in 6 children in North Carolina are at risk for hunger? While in school, these children may qualify for free or reduced breakfasts and lunches but are at higher risk for food insecurity on the weekends and holidays when these programs are not offered. Many schools offer food pantries to help offset the risk of hunger when school is not in session, but pantries across Wake County need restocking following summer break.

That's why we need your help!

Our fall mission project will be collecting food to donate to an area school's Backpack Buddies program. Beginning August 28, you will find collection bins located at all major church entrances.

Suggested donations:
 Canned meat (tuna, chicken)
 Easy Open Beans
 Easy Open Soup
 Peanut Butter
 Pasta and Pasta Sauce
 Rice
 Easy Open Canned Fruits and Vegetables
 Granola Bars
 Fruit Pouches
