Be. Belong. Become.

Meaningful Moments Coming in May

As we move through the month of May toward the summer, there is much to be a part of here at Trinity. I want to remind you of some important dates and events coming up in the next few weeks.

First, on May 18, we will observe both of our ordinances: baptism and the Lord's Supper as part of our worship. If you are interested in participating in baptism on May 18, please contact me or my assistant, Debbie Argento. We would love to have you profess your faith publicly through baptism.

In addition, May 18 will include our Church Conference at 7:00 p.m. in the Sanctuary. This is a time to come and discover what is happening in our church.

The following week, on May 25, we will celebrate one of our ONE WORSHIP Sundays. On this Memorial Day weekend, we will gather for worship at 10:30 a.m. (There will be no Sunday School on this day.)

Coffee and doughnuts will be available at the Narthex entrance beginning at 9:30 a.m. Come early and enjoy fellowship and conversation before worship.

Our Arabic Church will also join us in worship that morning. Their praise band will help lead us in worship, and we will hear a testimony from one of their members. I will be preaching that day, and we'll close the service with Arabic dessert treats.

I know this is a big travel weekend for many, but if you are in town, you won't want to miss this special time of worship. Casual dress is encouraged — come and enjoy the worship and fellowship.

Finally, we will wrap up our Wednesday night programs for the spring with our May fellowship dinner, which will be a BBQ meal. Be sure to sign up in advance for this final Wednesday night gathering of the season.

I'm looking forward to these next few weeks of worship and community together. I'll also be continuing my May preaching series through the Lectionary:

Scripture: Acts 11:1–10, 10:34

May 25 – A Faith to Remember

Family Promise Partners Needed Hosting Week: May 25-31

Family Promise of the Triangle began in 1994 providing church-based emergency shelter and meals to Wake County families experiencing homelessness. They now have programs in prevention, emergency shelter, post-shelter stabilization, rapid rehousing, traditional housing, and a New Lease on Life. All these programs help to accomplish their mission to end homelessness in the Triangle. Churches participate in the Family Promise ministry by providing food and sponsoring activities for families in emergency shelter.

Trinity has committed to "hosting" families by donating money or Food Lion gift cards ($10) to cover the cost of family meals, and praying for the families and the Family Promise ministry.

Are Young Adults Flourishing?

For those that read my articles on today's young adults know that I typically try to not be an alarmist. I try not to focus on the bad and I work to offer some helpful suggestions to use when interacting with a young adult. Today, I need to share some concerning data that we should all be aware of. Forgive me for geeking out on some of the most recent research data.

Ryan Burge, a sociologist, researcher, and former American Baptist pastor, recently shared a report that caught my attention. The title of his article is Flourishing or Floundering? How Young People See Their Lives. For a deeper dive, feel free to read his entire article.

Burge referenced a study by Tyler VanderWeele of Harvard University, who is researching human flourishing. VanderWeele proposes five different dimensions of human flourishing: happiness and life satisfaction, physical and mental health, meaning and purpose, character and virtues and close social relationships. There is a lot more in the article by Burge that I referenced earlier but what stood out to me was this graph. Compared to teenagers in middle school and high school, the young adults (college-aged through age 25) score far worse than their younger peers. You can clearly see that something happens between ages of 17 and 18. This is not to say that we shouldn't pay attention to the teenagers (obviously we should pay a lot of attention to them) but maybe we aren't paying enough attention to those who are going off to college and entering into the work force. I like what Burge wrote at the end of his article. "They (young adults) leave the stability of their home, many take on student loan debts, and they wrestle with making their way in life. According to this survey, it's certainly an incredibly fraught period of life." I've seen a lot of college graduation pictures lately on my social media feed. Maybe one thing we can do is say a prayer for those who are graduating and trying to figure out what is next.

ALWAYS ROOM FOR YOU!

Find your place in the music ministry in 2025!

If you have singing or instrumental abilities, we need you. We are always looking for more musicians to add to our worship leading ministries at Trinity. Consider getting involved in music ministry and being a part of an exciting place of ministry!

A very special thanks to all our children, parents, directors, and leaders in Preschool and Children's Choir ministries for a fantastic end of the year "Spring Sing Thing" last Wednesday. Hearing so many different types of songs and future singers is one of my favorite things to experience in the Spring season. I know a lot of hard work went into each one of their songs; our children and leaders work hard every week to prepare them for worship presentations throughout the year.

Be on the lookout for our Fall date to begin choir ministry again. Upcoming 6th graders are encouraged to come and continue their singing skills in Student Choir when it starts back. Parents, thank you for your faithfulness in bringing your children to musical experiences, and thank you choir leaders, for your unwavering dedication to teaching!

Do you have an interest in technical support for our worship ministry?

Sound, video, and slide techs are needed. Training is available for all positions, but it is a help if you have some background in working with sound and audio/visual areas. We are currently experiencing fewer slide techs due to life changes. Maybe this would be a great area to start? Stop by and talk about how your skills might be a good fit for Trinity.

Until we meet again!

Steve

"Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things."

Recruiting College Encouragers

The College Student Ministry Lead Team is in need of the following help:

Individuals to serve as encouragers for our students during their college years

As an individual or family, serve as an Encourager for a student who will be assigned by the end of May. Many of our current Encouragers have had the same student since their Freshman year of college and have been able to get to know the student and family over time. We need enough volunteers to give each rising Freshman an Encourager and to fill in open spots for the older students.

The Encourager will:

- make contact with the assigned student during the summer
- will communicate with the student by phone, text, email or mail (cards and small treats; birthday card) each month during the year.
- will commit to pray for the student!

Classes willing to donate items to be mailed to students during the year.

As a Sunday School class, collect useful items and snacks in August and September that the lead team will then send to students during the year. Items might include but not limited to: pencils, pens, post it notes, USB drive, nabs, hard candy, microwave popcorn, and $5.00 gift cards to Starbucks, Bojangles, Chick Fil A or Target.

If individuals or classes are willing to serve, please contact Taylor Miskel (tmiskel@tbcraleigh.com) Sue Glover (sue.c.glover@gmail.com) or Mandy Warren (amwarren101@gmail.com). We look forward to hearing from you!
