Deepen The Ties That Bind

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

One of our core values at Trinity is “Fellowship.” In our Intentionality Statements we state “Trinity Baptist Church values genuine fellowship, which is intentional and produces unity and harmony in the church family, the body of Christ.” When I have had conversations with church members concerning this core value, I have discovered two important characteristics about our congregation. The first one is people believe there is a healthy sense of fellowship in our congregation. When members choose to be involved with a Sunday School class or other small group they feel welcomed, accepted and develop a sense of community. However, a second characteristic is that most members tell me that this sense of community is not as strong when they consider the whole of the congregation. In a large church, it is hard to develop community beyond the individuals in one’s Sunday School class or outside a particular ministry team. Yet, we believe at Trinity that the church should be intergenerational and we should seek community throughout the whole of the congregation.

There are several instances where this cross-generational fellowship occurs naturally. The music ministry is a good example. The church members who sing in the choir or play in the orchestra or Bells of Praise, have a natural time of gathering, a common purpose and can build community. There are mission teams that also have the same opportunities. It is true to say that there are many opportunities for us to build cross-generational fellowship from week-to-week. However, because this core value is so important we also must be intentional to create more opportunities.

This is the reason for 4X4 fellowship groups. This summer we registered to be a part of a 4X4 group. These fellowship groups will consist of members of various ages and life situations. As part of one of these groups, you are encouraged to meet four times in a year for a meal and fellowship.

If you registered to be a part of a group, you should receive in the mail this week a letter that will contain information about your group and how to get started. If, for some reason, you registered and do not receive the information, please contact the church office so we can make sure you are part of a group. If you missed registration and would like to be placed in a group, then let us know and we will continue to form groups, until the first of the year.

The NCMO is the major funding source for the ministries of the NC Baptist Men.

You will find in your offering packet, the blue envelope for State and Local Missions. As you place your offering in the envelope, do so with prayer for those serving in these missions and for those that are being ministered to.

You, too, can PREPARE THE WAY for someone to seek God in their lives. Support the NCMO.

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Special thanks to Jack Stanford and Baron Hignite for their duet this past Sunday morning, which was accompanied by Kathy Stanford at the keyboard. We have been very blessed to have continuous and beautiful music shared with us in worship each Sunday now that we are in the ROC each week. The choir, accompanists, sound techs, and many volunteers have truly given much sacrifice to keep things as they were when we were in the sanctuary. Continue to pray for our worship services and personnel as we carry on our worship ministry and mission.

Students of Trinity, we begin Christmas music this coming Sunday, October 9 at 6:00 pm in the Underground. Remember that you have requirements for participation in the Hanging of the Greens service which will be held on November 27. November 20 is the rehearsal day and you must be present to participate. Everything will be different in the ROC this year. Don't get caught without instructions and supporting your choir mates! Mark your calendars now.

Tickets will cost $10 each and will be available mid-October. The cantata will be accompanied by an orchestra. We have the potential of filling the concert hall for this presentation, and it will be a joy to see our church people represent and support our choir's participation. Information on when and where the sales will take place will be forthcoming in the next few weeks.

Instrumentalists Needed

Are you an instrumentalist? Our Orchestra is in need of trombone players!

We have a great need to fill out our low brass section and are praying for some people to step up and join our orchestra on Wednesday nights. We rehearse from 6:30 to 7:30 pm in the Fellowship Hall following dinner. The orchestra is for High School students and adults who are knowledgeable of reading music and willing to develop their skill. It is a really fun way to worship God and train as a worship leader.

High School Sunday Parking

This is just one simple way that we can be a part of helping our church as we seek to make room for others!

What is Worship to You?

Worship involves encountering the Lord, meeting Jesus, hearing God's word and lifting our voices in praise. Worship is not just a refueling time to get us through another week. It is not a system of traditions built up over the years of congregational life until we feel comfortable. It is also not a time to unwind, relax, take a mental vacation and enjoy an hour of Christian entertainment.

Worship should be the surrender of our souls to a God who is jealous for our attention, time and love. Worship is a challenge. With children it is a bigger challenge. Like most sports or activities children participate in, they learn by doing, practicing and experiencing. Children learn to worship by worshipping—through participation, practice, and patience. The task can be overwhelming if you take it seriously. Training children to worship is best taught by parents or the significant caregivers in their life, not necessarily professionals.

Worshipping parents in the pew can show by example what it means to seek God, to love God's Son, and to respond to the Holy Spirit in worship. Children learn that prayer is important when they see their parents make it a priority. Children learn to give generously when they witness their parent's doing it. Children dress, sing, participate by following example as well as instruction. When worship is an obvious joy to parents, children will expect to experience the same.

We value our children and their experiences at church. Let me encourage you as parents to make the most of the opportunity to share in worship with your child.

Becoming a Christian/ Becoming a Church Member CLASS

For Children in Grades 3-5

October 16 and October 23

5:00-7:00pm • E239

This is an awesome class that teaches about Conversion, the Church, Baptism and Lord's Supper. Please call the church office or let me know if you or your child is interested. You will need to attend both weeks of classes to get the full course.

Attention Parents

Please remember to leave your class by 10:40am on Sundays to return to pick up your children by 10:45 or 10:50. This will insure that all your children's teachers and leaders can get to their respective worship assignments as well.

Adults, if you are working in ETC –we also ask that you leave your classroom by 10:40am to arrive in time to relieve the SS teachers and assist with transitions.

How to Make Worship Meaningful for your Child

1. Show excitement when picking up your child to go to the worship service. Help them to anticipate the hour. You might say, "We are going to worship God," or "Let's go see what we are singing today," or "We are going to meet God."
2. Introduce your child to various ministers, leaders, ushers, and other church helpers. They will be learning about church helpers all year. Watch for them in the service.
3. Encourage your child to participate. Stand up when everyone stands, sing along, follow the words, look up scripture and point to it, and give an offering when the plate is past.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Hope to see you there!

Send them to the front for the Children's moment.

4. Sit close enough so your child can see. Many will sit more still when they are able to see and hear best.
5. Don't be afraid of the wiggles or questions. It will only bother you for a while. This is a learning time—you will not get this year back. Those around you will understand more than you know.
6. Take the next few weeks to get used to the transition. Attend worship together one week and maybe let your child remain in ETC for another.
7. Sign up to work in ETC or volunteer in church somewhere as a family. Let your child see how important church involvement is to your family. Set the example. They are learning what church is all about.

8. Don't fret if your child falls asleep or doodles while the service is going on. Children can multitask very well. They are still learning and sharing in the worship experience. How often does your mind travel even in an upright position?

9. As you enter, pick up a children's worship bulletin or the worship notebook and the regular one. Discuss the difference and the importance of following along and participating.

We are thankful and excited to have families with us at Trinity. My prayer is that at Trinity, you can grow as a family in your relationship with Christ.
